

Student Clubs & Organizations

- Student Council: A group of elected and volunteer students working together to provide a means for student expression, assistance in school affairs and activities, and to give opportunities for leadership experience.
- National Honor Society: A nationwide organization for high school students. Selection is based on four criteria: scholarship, leadership, service, and character.
- Public Speaking/Debate: Provides a unique opportunity to help members develop their speaking, listening and leadership skills. Members learn techniques for overcoming stage anxiety, connecting with any audience, assimilating verbal and non-verbal communication skills, and achieving a commanding executive presence.
- Young Rotary: A service organization for young people that focuses on the development of young adults as leaders in their communities and workplaces.
- Creative Writing: Brings together students of all writing abilities who have an interest in creating fiction, nonfiction, scripts, and/or poetry. It provides a collaborative workspace for members to write, share ideas, and provide feedback for each other's work.
- Theatre: Gives students an opportunity to participate in supervised creative dramatic activities which include performances once a semester in front of an audience.
- Sources of Strength: A diverse group of individuals who leverage their personal and collective leadership qualities as well as their social influence in leading the charge in norming and culture change campaigns using strength-based messages to impact multiple issues including suicide.
